The Business Recognition You Deserve

Every year, the France Ireland Chamber of Commerce (FICC) and NetworkIreland host the Ireland France Business Awards alternatively in Dublin and Paris. The objective of the Awards is to acknowledge Irish and French companies which have made an exceptional contribution to the development of trade and investment between Ireland and France.

This year, the Awards will be held in Dublin (TBC in line with COVID-19 guidelines), in the presence of the French Ambassador to Ireland and Honorary President of FICC and the Irish Ambassador to France and Honorary President of NetworkIreland.

We look forward to welcoming the winning companies and members of the France Ireland Chamber of Commerce and NetworkIreland at the Awards ceremony and Gala dinner at the Intercontinental Hotel in Dublin on Thursday 19th November 2020.

Entry Categories

1. Best French Company in Ireland

2. Best Irish Company in France

Best French Company in Ireland and Best Irish Company in France

These awards serve to highlight and recognise the important contribution of both Irish and French companies to promoting business and investment between the two countries.

Companies which apply for either of these two Awards must comply with the following criteria:

Criteria for judging the Entries

- Demonstration that the company applying is a registered Irish business (Best Irish Company in France) or a registered French business (Best French Company in Ireland). Such a company must be headquartered, managed and have its main activity in Ireland for the company applying for the Best Irish Company, and in France for the company applying for the Best French Company.
- Demonstration that the company applying has been doing business in both Ireland and France for at least two years, and can demonstrate investment in the country of destination.
- Development of business activity in France and/or Ireland
- Demonstration that the company is a high quality employer (working environment, employment benefits, HR management)
- Demonstration that the employment between Ireland & France has increased positively from the viewpoint of both countries
- Innovation
- Commitment to CSR (to include climate change and sustainability)
- A company which has previously won an award in one of the categories will not be considered for an award in that category for a period of two years after winning the award.

Special Jury's Award for Franco-Irish Business – Rising Star

In recognition of the importance of the contribution of entrepreneurship to the development of trade between Ireland and France, the Jury have decided to dedicate an award this year to SMEs and Entrepreneurs.

The award will focus on criteria relevant to a “Rising Star” company active in the Franco-Irish business world:

- Demonstration of a sustainable business proposition relevant to the French and Irish markets that has the potential to grow
- Innovation
- Development of employment in Ireland, France or both countries

Entry Requirements:

All small businesses with a maximum of 30 employees are eligible to enter.

The company is:

- A registered French company targeting the Irish market or
- A registered Irish company targeting the French market

The company is not a subsidiary of another business nor a franchise

The company is in operation for at least two years

 For all categories, the Jury reserves the right not to make an award in a particular category in the event that there are insufficient entries or the quality of entries is not of a high enough standard.*
